IAAI Application for Committee Membership

The IAAI is dedicated to improving the professional development of fire and explosion investigators by being the global resource for fire investigation training, technology and research.

Committee Membership

The work of the IAAI is completed by members who volunteer their time and expertise. We rely on our membership to participate in the various committees of the IAAI. There are standing committees established in our Constitution and By-Laws and committees established by the President and Executive Team.

If you are interested in serving on a committee please complete this application. The Executive Team will review all committees, current assignments and applications. The Executive Team will make committee appointments as determined. The IAAI will notify you of your appointment to a committee.
